flag, are eligible to become members of the post. The charter closes Thursday noon, December 1, 1920. Those men desiring to become charter members must see McBride, Theta Chi house, before Thursday noon on the above date. The time to join is now. Do not put it off another day. Members of

Professor W. E. Barrows Makes Tau Beta Pi

Tau Beta Pi initiated Professor William E. Barrows of the Electrical Department as an honorary member on November 23. Professor Barrows is a member of the class of '08 and is very popular with the student body. He is vitally interested in boosting "Maine."

Prospects for Maine Masque Very Bright

Rehearsals for the Maine Masque will be resumed next Wednesday after two weeks of inactivity. At the rehearsals held thus far a wealth of material has presented itself and prospects are very bright for a capable and intelligent cast of characters for this year's play, "The School for Scandal," by Richard Brinsley Sheridan.

Under the capable direction of Professor Bailey, the men are rapidly absorbing the fundamentals and fine points in the art of acting. The majority of the material that reported at the beginning was very green and it required the hand of one who was well versed in dramatics to mold it into serviceable form. It has been the policy of Prof. Bailey to develop two casts of men so that any scholastic difficulties that may present themselves to any of the candidates, will not interfere with the presentation of the play, as an understudy will be available in any emergency.

Parts will soon be assigned to the successful candidates, and, with the return of the student body from the Xmas vacation, the play will be launched upon its journey, which promises to be a very successful one.

"Hep" Pratt Captain This Year's Relay Team

Leader of Experienced Men, Has Great Confidence

The Relay team is working out every day under the direction of Coach Flack and Captain "Hep" Pratt. Three of the last year letter men are out for the team again and it looks at present as though there will be some keen competition for places on the team.

Harold Pratt was elected captain of the team last year and from him we are expecting some good results. He graduated from Worcester Academy, and was very prominent in track at that school ranking as the fastest prep school quarter miler in that state. He started to add laurels to his prep school record during his first year at Maine. He was elected captain of relay his second year and captain of the track team during his junior year. He was also high point winner for Maine at the State meet at Lewiston last spring winning the quarter-mile and 220 yard run and also placing in the broad jump.

He was elected to the Sophomore Owls, Junior Masks, and now has the highest honor one can attain at Maine by wearing a Senior Skull pin.

Champions of Boys' and Girls' Clubs Coming

Eighty-three boys and girls who have won county championships in the various projects in the agricultural and home-making clubs in Maine, conducted under the extension service of the College of Agriculture, are entitled to take part in the state contest, to be held on the campus, Dec. 30-Jan. 1. The girls in this are to be assisted by the girls in the Mandolin Club who are to present a short program before the operetta and then furnish whatever music may be necessary during the operetta. Inter-class Contests To Be Part of Relay

Offers Competition to Basketball
Enthusiasm

Relay practice will start in earnest this week on the board track. There are over 45 men out. Almost one-half are freshmen. Most of these men have been in the relay team.

Coach Flack and Hep Pratt of last year's team have been getting the kinks out of their legs by running on the track. They both look a track in the gym. They give their opponents a good run. Frank Averill who of competition last year reported for at Bow-week. Two of the many who see this Wells and Smith, who comes from Haven High School are in good form and will give last year's men a good run for berths on the team.

That relay is still popular as a winter sport is shown by the number of men who have reported and are going to. The Intra-Mural races which will be run at an early date will bring out still more material.

Coach Flack will work on the fundamentals of running before the Christmas vacation then pick out the squad. After vacation he will condition the picked men. Now is the time for all relay men to report either to Manager Fifield or to Coach Flack. Seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen see that all the relay men in your respective classes get out and report this week.

Monday night Coach Flack announced several relay races that will be held in the near future.

Saturday, Dec. 11, at 2.30 on the board track there will be a race between last year's varsity team and the four best men from the relay squad.

Tuesday, Dec. 14, the freshmen will run the sophomores, the juniors will run the seniors. The first two teams will be awarded their class numerals.

Wednesday, Dec. 15, the finals of the interclass races will be run.

University of Maine Men for County Agents

Dean L. S. Merrill of the College of Agriculture has recommended for appointment as county agents in the agricultural extension service two University of Maine alumni, who were the unanimous choice of the Farm Bureaus in the counties to which they have been assigned.

W. Sherman Rowe '12, who is superintendent of the big farm connected with the Maine institution for the feeble minded, at West Pownal, will be county agent in Cumberland, with headquarters at Portland, succeeding Earle L. Emery '17, who was killed in a grade crossing accident at North Yarmouth, last month. Mr. Rowe has been engaged in lines of farm management since his graduation.

Ralph C. Wentworth '18 is to be agricultural agent in Knox and Lincoln counties, succeeding Roger L. Gowell '16, resigned. Mr. Wentworth was for a time employed at the Hood farm and is now in charge of Dr. Gage's dairy farm in Lowell, Mass. He played on the varsity baseball team three years, the last year as captain. He will begin his new duties Jan. 1.

Books taken from the library from now on will become due before the Christmas vacation, unless they are renewed just previous to going home. If anyone has a book out that would naturally become due during the days of vacation it must either be turned in or renewed for the days of vacation will be counted as any other days and a fine of two cents per day will be charged for the time.

Round Table Planning Interesting Meeting

The Round Table committee is planning an especially interesting program for the next meeting of the society which will be held in Balentine Hall, Tuesday, November 7 from 4 to 6 P.M.

The principal speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Abbott, an ex-president of the Women's Federation of Clubs of Maine. Mrs. Abbott is a very interesting speaker and always brings a message of interest to those to whom she speaks.

The second speaker of the afternoon will be Minnie Norell '22 who will give a report of the Student Government Convention that she recently attended in Elmira N. Y.

After the meeting a tea will be held. Mrs. Mason will be in charge of the tea table. The social hour of the tea will afford an opportunity to the ladies of the faculty and the girls of the college to meet Mrs. Abbott.

Miss Scheerer Reads Three Artistic Playlets

On Friday night, the Maine Christian Association presented Maud Scheerer who read for us three clever one-act plays. The first number was "The Florist Shop," and Miss Scheerer interpreted with much sympathy and humor, the character of the romance-loving shop-girl who believes that financial returns are the very smallest part of the floral business. The second play was "Trifles," a tragedy of a New England village, which made a strong appeal to the audience. Finally, Miss Scheerer read one of Barrie's comedies, "The Twelve-Pound Look," which gives an excellent picture of the overbearing British husband and his long-suffering wife, who despite her meekness, gradually acquires the "twelve-pound look."

The program was very interesting and entertaining.

To smoke or not to smoke. Your answer fair Co-ed! In New York and "gay Paree," rumor has it, the fair have grown most deft in an art which, until recent years, was monopolized by man. Will the movement sweep westward? Are we at Varsity (a few of us at any rate) old-fashioned and Puritanical in resisting this innovation? Or is smoking really beyond the pale of refinement and culture? In a word, is smoking unwomanly? On the other hand, will poor, down-trodden women be truly liberated only when "equal rights" prevail, in politics and fatimas. Or has man become the victim, relentlessly pursued by the deadly "Female of Species," mercilessly hunted out from his last refuge and sanctum—the smoker? Be prepared women of Varsity, to give your verdict on this weighty question, for within the next few days, a "News" reporter will solicit the opinions of many of the co-eds.

Final Plans are Laid For Dec. "Maine-Spring"

At the last meeting of the Contributors' Club, plans were discussed for the Christmas issue of the Maine-Spring, to be published Dec. 10. This magazine which will be fifty pages in length, will contain articles by Ardis Doliff, Dean Stevens, Mr. Cummings, Philip Grey and others.

After the business meeting, a paper was read by Miss Margaret Blethen entitled, "To See Ourselves as Others See Us."

for Usual Musical Program

Instead of the program as has been regularly carried out by the Girls' Glee Club in former years, a two act operetta, "The Egyptian Princess," is to be given by the Club. The girls in this are to be assisted by the girls in the Mandolin Club who are to present a short program before the operetta and then furnish whatever music may be necessary during the operetta. The prospects of a successful entertainment are good as a number of the former members have reported and a lot of new candidates are trying out.

Those already on the list are as follows:

Ethel Bird, Betty Hunt, Avis Strout, Florence Salley, Achsa Bean, Minnie Norell, Alice Keene, Lorette Cloutier.

Inter-class Contests To Be Part of Relay

Offers Competition to Basketball
Enthusiasm

Relay practice will start in earnest this week on the board track. There are over 45 men out. Almost one-half are freshmen. Most of these men have their equipment.

Capt. Castle and Hep Pratt of last year's team have been getting the kinks out of their pedal extremities by running on the indoor track in the gym. They both look as though they will give their opponents a lot of competition. Frank Averill who ran at Bowdoin last year reported for practice this week. Two of the many freshmen, Wells and Smith, who comes from New Haven High School are in good form and will give last year's men a good run for berths on the team.

That relay is still popular as a winter sport is shown by the number of men who have reported and are going to. The Intra-Mural races which will be run at an early date will bring out still more material.

Coach Flack will work on the fundamentals of running before the Christmas vacation then pick out the squad. After vacation he will condition the picked men. Now is the time for all relay men to report either to Manager Fifield or to Coach Flack. Seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen see that all the relay men in your respective classes get out and report this week.

Monday night Coach Flack announced several relay races that will be held in the near future.

Saturday, Dec. 11, at 2.30 on the board track there will be a race between last year's varsity team and the four best men from the relay squad.

Tuesday, Dec. 14, the freshmen will run the sophomores, the juniors will run the seniors. The first two teams will be awarded their class numerals.

Wednesday, Dec. 15, the finals of the interclass races will be run.

University of Maine Men for County Agents

Dean L. S. Merrill of the College of Agriculture has recommended for appointment as county agents in the agricultural extension service two University of Maine alumni, who were the unanimous choice of the Farm Bureaus in the counties to which they have been assigned.

W. Sherman Rowe '12, who is superintendent of the big farm connected with the Maine institution for the feeble minded, at West Pownall, will be county agent in Cumberland, with headquarters at Portland, succeeding Earle L. Emery '17, who was killed in a grade crossing accident at North Yarmouth, last month. Mr. Rowe has been engaged in lines of farm management since his graduation.

Ralph C. Wentworth '18 is to be agricultural agent in Knox and Lincoln counties, succeeding Roger L. Gowell '16, resigned. Mr. Wentworth was for a time employed at the Hood farm and is now in charge of Dr. Gage's dairy farm in Lowell, Mass. He played on the varsity baseball team three years, the last year as captain. He will begin his new duties Jan. 1.

Books taken from the library from now on will become due before the Christmas vacation, unless they are renewed just previous to going home. If anyone has a book out that would naturally become due during the days of vacation it must either be turned in or renewed for the days of vacation will be counted as any other days and a fine of two cents per day will be charged for the time.

Round Table Planning Interesting Meeting

The Round Table committee is planning an especially interesting program for the next meeting of the society which will be held in Balentine Hall, Tuesday, November 7 from 4 to 6 P. M.

The principal speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Abbott, an ex-president of the Women's Federation of Clubs of Maine. Mrs. Abbott is a very interesting speaker and always brings a message of interest to those to whom she speaks.

The second speaker of the afternoon will be Minnie Norell '22 who will give a report of the Student Government Convention that she recently attended in Elmira N. Y.

After the meeting a tea will be held. Mrs. Mason will be in charge of the tea table. The social hour of the tea will afford an opportunity to the ladies of the faculty and the girls of the college to meet Mrs. Abbott.

Editorial

Orono, Maine,
Nov. 26, 1920

Mr. Henry Y. Howard, Editor
The Maine Campus
Campus
My dear Sir:

In reference to an editorial which appeared in the last number of The Maine Campus, relative to a proposal for the erection of a suitable memorial to the world war heroes of the University of Maine, it behooves me to announce that a body of over fifty students was organized about one month ago with this object chiefly in view. This organization is known as the Charles A. Rice Post #548 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, and consists of overseas service men.

By way of an explanation it might be of benefit to state here something of the nature and the aims of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. It is a national organization founded in 1899, and incorporated under act of Congress, which has for its motto: "Fortitude and Loyalty." Its aims are to foster comradeship, loyalty to the government of the United States, to perpetuate the memory of its dead, etc. Persons eligible to become members are the soldiers, sailors, and marines who, in times of war, on land or sea, in foreign climes, have fought for flag, home and liberty.

The post proposes to launch a drive among the students and alumni for donations towards the foundation of such a memorial. The nature of this memorial can best be determined from the generosity of the response from the students and alumni. The suggestion of a memorial arch meets with unanimous approval by the members of the post, since this plan was the first to be contemplated. It would naturally be more desirable to have a Maine Union, but the financing of such a momentous enterprise does not lie within the power of the post at present. It is hoped however that the anticipated support may warrant the erection of an elaborate arch to be placed at the main entrance to the campus.

Yours very respectfully,

A. T. Gaudreau
Chaplain, Post #548

"Shure, an Oi hov, doctor. There's the devilish thing in a toomblar av warrum water at this blissid minnit."

Frost, the general manager of a national farm selling organization, with headquarters at New York City, is the promoter of a proposition which promises to be an aid for developing central Maine. He has put Mr. Willey in direct charge of operations on the Kennebec Farms. They have purchased a fine head of cattle from several of the best known Holstein farms of New York State. "Train is waiting for you, sir," went on the collector. "Why, there it is in your mouth all the time."

And the train moved on.

"Do you suffer much from absence of mind?" asked a satirical passenger.

"Absence of mind be hanged," returned the poor, feeble old gentleman.

"I was sucking the date off a last week's ticket."

THE STATUE OF LIBERTY

Most of the famous structures of the world are equipped with Otis Elevators.

WHAT structure is better known or is more typical of America than this Statue at the gate of New York.

Countless thousands from the old world pass under the uplifted arm that holds a light which means to them worlds more than to us, though our millions know it and love it for the symbol it is.

It is fitting that an Otis Elevator should carry passengers up through the base to the foot of the Statue. For though the activities of Otis are world-wide, the beginnings, the creation, the basic ideas and the great developments of vertical transportation were made by Otis in America.

A University is said to Resemble World by Itself

Chief Difference Lies in Our Manner of Living

Some one has called the university a small corner of the world. Have you ever stopped to think of the similarity? Here in our own university we can see the truth of this statement, though in a limited way.

We have several colleges dealing with several chief occupations of life. We have a variety of nationalities represented in our student body and faculty—a variety in the matter of ancestors if not in the present generation. Many types of creeds and dogmas are included in the religious make-up of the college community.

There are the same social, political, economic, and religious questions, on a small scale, in a university group of people that are found in any part of the world. The same problems and difficulties face the college student, greatly modified, of course, by the essentially happy environment of normal college life, that face the man or woman in the outside world.

The chief difference between the university and the outside world is the absence, in the former, of the larger responsibilities of life and the soul-wracking, monotonous grind of daily life which the average individual must endure. The four years spent in college are generally an extension of the pleasures and care-free days of the youthful high-school period of life. The college student, in many ways, has no realization of the sterner, more serious side of the world.

But in any large group of people there are the same general types of people, presenting the same problems due to diverse personalities and characteristics. Thus, the college student, especially the university student, learns much of human nature, which knowledge, after all, is one of the most important assets an individual can possess in after-life. In a university with its broad curriculum there are all types of people represented in its student body. Every student is apt to come in contact with these differing phases of human nature sometime during his college course. Such contact is more valuable than any amount of book knowledge that can be acquired. There is no greater inspiration to ambition and effort than the stimulus of association and competition.

Since the university is like the outside world in so many respects, let us make the most of our opportunity in being able to attend our University where we can get such an admirable introductory training for after-life. Let us also do our utmost to make our college community an enviable corner of the world.

A WDC Pipe is the biggest value that the World's Largest Pipe Manufacturers can put into a pipe. The WDC is a good, satisfying smoke, and bound to break in sweet and mellow every time. Highest quality of bit, band and bowl; craftsmanship of the highest order—that's what we mean by biggest value. Ask any good dealer.

Delta Tau Delta Holds Informal House Party

On Thanksgiving Eve the local chapter, Gamma Nu, of Delta Tau Delta held an informal house-party and dance.

Professor and Mrs. Thompson were the chaperons of the evening. Professor Thompson is a graduate of the University of Texas where he was a member of Gamma Iota chapter of Delta Tau Delta.

The hall was attractively decorated with a purple, white and gold Δ T Δ in the center.

Refreshments were served at intermission.

Music was furnished by Al Johnson's orchestra.

The second Y. W. C. A. sing was held at Balentine Hall, Sunday evening. The girls gathered around the piano in the front reception hall and sang college and Y. W. songs. Frances Dunning played the accompaniment. The sing was not as largely attended as usual but what was lacking in numbers was made up in spirit. Join us in the next Y. W. sing and see how much better you will feel.

"Hep" Pratt Captain This Year's Relay Team

Roger Castle is back for relay work and is showing good form. He captained the team to victory last year, so he is another asset to the team this year.

Thomas and Rock are both letter men of last year's team. They are getting back into form and are working hard to make the team.

The new material that looks promising are Wells and O'Connor. They both are working hard to come up to the high standard of Maine relay teams.

It would be a good idea for the student body to get out and watch the boys work out and encourage them on.

It would give them more encouragement to practice if a crowd would show a little interest in them. If any student of Maine has not seen our relay team practice, let him come out to the board track in the afternoon at four o'clock.

Contributors' Club Dance Coming Friday

Posters have appeared recently on the campus advertising the Maine-Spring dance to be held next Friday evening, under the auspices of the Contributors' Club.

The proceeds of this dance will go towards financing the Maine-Spring, the first number of which will be published soon.

Al Johnson's orchestra will furnish the music for this dance which promises to be a successful affair.

There should be a good attendance, as it is a fine chance to show college spirit in backing up this latest college activity. The good time will be well worth it, anyway.
