GRID TEAM MEETS GARNET HERE FOR FIRST SERIES GAME

Maine Team Is Hurt by List
Of Injured Players. Yale
Tie Gives Bates Edge

By BOB BERG
Sports Editor

The Black Bears of Maine will make their first attempt to defend their state championship crown Saturday afternoon at Alumni Field when they will meet a slightly favored Bates eleven in the opening game of the state series.

The Bobcat team has the advantage over Maine on account of its 0-0 tie with Yale earlier in the season and the fact that three of Coach Brice's star players, Johnny Wilson, Frank Craig, and John Wight will be unavailable for service because of injuries sustained in the New Hampshire tilt last week. Sam Calderwood and Mun Romansky have been appointed by Coach Brice as co-captains for the entire state series games.

Judging by the advance sale of tickets, one of the biggest crowds in years will attend the Black Bears-Bobcat struggle. The game seems to be the crucial one of the series and it is predicted that the team coming out on top will be the champions. Weather conditions will figure largely in the outcome of the game. If there is a wet field, then Bates will have a decided advantage as Morey's eleven are noted as a defensive team, backed by strong kicking. On the other hand, the entire Maine offense is built around deception and spinner plays so that a dry field is necessary to carry out this type of attack.

In the 12 years that Coach Fred Brice has had charge of football, the Black Bears have been vanquished but twice by Bates. Last year Maine was the victor 9-6 after a hard fought grueling game.

Alumni Service Emblem To Be Awarded at Luncheon

Awarding of the Alumni Service Emblem is to be a feature of the Alumni-Faculty Homecoming Luncheon which is to be held at the University of Maine, Saturday, October 29 and at which Hon. Louis J. Brann of Lewiston is to be the speaker.

The award this year is to be made by Arthur L. Deering, president of the General Alumni Association and will be the third such award to have been made. It is given in recognition of outstanding service rendered through the Alumni Association to the University.

Tennis Tournament Nearing Completion

All of the first-round matches in the autumn tennis tournament have been played; and about half of the results of the second-round matches are in.

In the second-round matches, as far as they have progressed, Lampropos defeated Cameron, 6-3, 6-3; Fuller defaulted to Bunker; Captain won from Matchett, 7-5, 6-4; Pendell lost to Wadleigh, 6-1, 6-0; and Frost defeated Hamilton, 6-4, 7-5.

Two of the third-round matches have been played. Lampropos edged Bunker, 8-6, 8-6; and Wadleigh won from Captain, 6-2, 6-1. Lampropos and Wadleigh will meet in one of the semi-finals of the tournament.

DISCUSSION TONIGHT ON HONOR SYSTEM

Cecil G. Fielder Leads Open
Forum at Liberal Club
Meeting at 7:30

Cecil G. Fielder, General Secretary of the M.C.A., will speak on the subject "Resolved that the Honor System should be established at the University" at the Liberal Club meeting tonight in 275 Stevens Hall. An open forum will follow. This meeting ought to be especially interesting to both faculty and students, since this is one of the most discussed topics on the campus at the present time.

Drs. Colvin, Stevens To Be Honor Guests

Occasion To Be Teachers' Alumni Association Meeting at Bangor Convention

Dr. Caroline Colvin and Dr. James S. Stevens are to be guests of honor at the annual meeting of the University of Maine Teachers' Alumni Association which is to be held October 29, in Bangor in connection with the State Teachers' Convention. Both Dr. Colvin and Dr. Stevens were instrumental in the formation of the Teachers' Association years ago and the meeting this year is in the nature of a tribute to these two faculty members who have always shown an interest in the success of the association.

Dr. Colvin is now emeritus professor of history at the University and Dr. Stevens is emeritus dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Political Debates and Oxford Races Order of the Day at English Picnic

About 10 o'clock Saturday morning, a mysterious door-call was received at Balentine Hall. In a short while the "hue and cry" had completed its circuit, and from out the dormitory came ye old English majors fast upon the heels of their gallant swains—the "verray parfit gentil knights" of the English department, clad in their holiday attire. With all courtesy and consideration the fair ladies were gently handed into the waiting carriages, and the party set forth on its pilgrimage to Pushaw.

After an exciting journey they arrived at their destination where they found five strong, sea-worthy craft lying at anchor, ready for their disposal. Dr. Ellis, as befitting the father of the department, a man strong of heart and brave he was, was the first to venture upon the precarious mission. Carefully unloosing "No. 4," he stepped in and commanded his crew to follow. Not to be outdone by his seniority, the rest of the party followed suit, and at once a wild race was in progress. Dr. Ellis, however, demonstrated his nautical prowess, when he brought his boat, manned by Hutchinson, Ballard, and Snider, to shore, outdoing even the Oxford crew under Ashby. The winning crew amiably consented to be photographed for posterity by the versatile Jimmy Moreland—professor, photographer, politician, and tree-climber.

This led up to a most exciting episode when a mutual dare was carried out by the chivalrous Dr. Small and the ever-efficient Polly Brown. Donning their swimming apparel, they were rowed out on the lake by Bob Heilman, and there they leaped into the icy waters of Pushaw! To the delight and awe of the shivering spectators, the two swimmers came at

ROLAND HAYES TO BE GUEST SOLOIST AT MAINE CONCERT

40 Maine Students To Take Part in Maine Festival
Concert Wednesday

Roland Hayes, distinguished negro tenor, is to be the guest soloist at the Maine Festival Concert which is to be held in the Bangor Auditorium next Wednesday evening. This is the first time in several years that the Festival Concert has been successful in obtaining one of the most sought concert singers as the outstanding participant in their program.

A chorus, consisting of a group of three hundred voices, about forty of whom are from the University Chorus, under the direction of Professor Sprague of the Music department will present a feature number of the evening, which will be a scene from Coleridge-Taylor's "Hiawatha," from the famous Longfellow Indian poem. Mr. Hayes will sing the tenor role of this number.

The Bangor Symphony Orchestra, which is to offer several selections on the program will also be under the direction of Professor Sprague.

The colored soloist has made eight tours of his own country and in the spring and summer he has visited each capital of Europe, where the rare beauty of his singing is as highly prized as it is in America.

Tickets for the concert may be purchased at the price of one and two dollars. Ticket orders may be sent to the Bangor Chamber of Commerce. The sale will open Saturday at Andrews' Music House on Columbia Street in Bangor, or they may be secured from Professor Sprague of the music department.

Debaters Defeat Vermont; Mount Allison Here Monday

The University of Maine debating team met and defeated in 2 to 1 decision the University of Vermont, Tuesday evening, on the question, "Resolved, that most advertising tends to be detrimental to the best interests of the general public." Maine took the affirmative standpoint, while Vermont debated the negative.

Next Monday evening the Maine debating team will meet the debate team of Mt. Allison University of Sackville, N.B. in the chapel in Alumni Hall. The same proposition as that for the Vermont debate will be used.

CLASSES NOMINATE 1932-33 OFFICERS AT PRIMARIES TUESDAY

Secondary Nominations To Be Held at Same Places
Next Tuesday

Primary nominations were held Tuesday night by the four classes of the University in preparation for the coming elections, which will be held on November 1. The seniors met in Rogers Hall, the juniors in Alumni Hall, the sophomores in Coburn Hall, and the freshmen in the M.C.A. building.

The senior class failed to nominate a chaplain, which means that they will hold both primary and secondary nominations for this office next week.

The list of the nominees by classes follows:

Seniors: president, Samuel Calderwood, Gilbert Robertshaw, Munroe Romansky; vice-president, Harry Booth, Herbert Lewis, Russell Shaw, John Wilson; secretary, Marcia Adelman, Priscilla Bell, Marion Dickson, Marjorie Moulton, Martha Smith, Emily Thompson, Ethne Worcester; treasurer, Harold Hall, Philip Havey, Melbourne Means.

Osgood.

Major Eberle Is Initiated Into Scabbard and Blade

Major Sidney F. Eberle was initiated as an honorary member of Scabbard and Blade at a meeting held at the Theta Chi House October 6th. Major Eberle was graduated from the University of Washington in 1914 and studied aeronautics at the University of Texas. From there he was sent to Kelley Field and was a pursuit pilot. He has been associated with the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Georgia, and was located at the General Staff and Command School at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, before coming here. He is well liked by those with whom he has come into contact, and the cadet officers of the University of Maine battalion hope to profit by his experience.

THREE SOPHS INJURED IN MOTORCYCLE MISHAP

Wilbert Pronovost '35 received a fractured rib when he was struck by a motorcycle in front of Stevens Hall last Thursday morning. Cecil Gilbert '35, driver of the vehicle, suffered a broken nose, and had five of his front teeth knocked out when, in applying the brakes he struck his face against the handlebars of the motorcycle. A Hamilton Boothby '35, a passenger on the vehicle, received minor lacerations on his knee.

The freshman "Y" met at Mount Vernon last night for a discussion of campus activities. Upperclass representatives from the various organizations spoke on the subjects of their respective activities, explaining the purposes and requirements for membership in each.

CAMPUS TO RUN POLL ALL DAY TUESDAY FOR OPINION ON PRESIDENT

DINNER FOR LETTER MEN WILL BE HELD

Undergraduates and Alumni
To Meet Next Friday
For Reunion

Plans are underway for a dinner and meeting of undergraduate and alumni "M" men to be held, Friday, October 28, at 5:30 P.M., as a part of the Alumni Homecoming program. T. S. Curtis, faculty manager of athletics and Maynard Hincks, assistant to the dean of men, are in charge of this event. It is believed that this meeting will be the first of its kind, certainly in recent years, if not for all time.

William Yeats Will Speak at Assembly

Irish Poet, Nobel Prize Winner in 1932, to Be on Campus on November First

William Butler Yeats, famous the world over as a literary celebrity and winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1932, is to be the guest speaker at the morning assembly on November 1st. Mr. Yeats who has been prominent in Irish art, literature, and drama has recently come to America on a short lecture tour including the University among his first audiences.

Announcement Is Made of Peace Oratorical Contest

The oratorical contest to further interest in the subject of peace, which has been conducted for the past three years by the Intercollegiate Peace Association, will again be sponsored this year by the same organization. The association conducts this contest by states, working under the direction of a national chairman. This year Mr. Bricker of the public speaking department is the state chairman for Maine.

All men, including freshmen, are eligible to try out for the contest, and all desirous of doing so are requested to see Mr. Bricker sometime Wednesday or Thursday of next week at his office in 240 Stevens.

Prof. Bailey Begins Masque Rehearsals

Rehearsals have started under the direction of Professor Mark Bailey for the Masque production, As Husbands Go, a comedy by Rachel Crothers, which will be given in the university chapel Thursday, November 10.

The final cast for the play is as follows: Lucile Lingard, Ernestine Merrill; Ronald Derbyshire, Kenneth Foster; Emmie Lykes, Barbara Sawyer; Hippolytus Somy, Alfred Sweeney, Edward Little, understudy; Maitre D'Hotel, John Farnsworth; Waiter, Stuart Mosher; Charles Lingard, Elston Ingalls; Christine, Alice Sisco; Peggy, Dorothy Sawyer; Jake Canon, William Butler; and Katie, Lucinda Ripley.

Omicron Mu, the national honorary home economics fraternity, held the first meeting of the year last Thursday noon at Merrill Hall. The following officers were elected: President, Mabel Lancaster, steward; secretary and treasurer, Martha Smith; Editor, Marjorie Moulton.

Mrs. Sweetman was chosen as faculty adviser. Eulalie Collins was elected to the fraternity and will be initiated soon.

Miss Anne Hodgkins, representing the Women's Amateur Athletic Federation, will be the speaker at Assembly on Thursday, October 27. Miss Hodgkins will be here under the auspices of the women's division of the Department of Physical Education and will speak on "Women and the Olympics."

Four Ballot Boxes Will Be Used. Results Out Thursday

A straw vote for president of the United States will be conducted under the sponsorship of the Campus on Tuesday of next week. Ballot boxes will be situated in Alumni Hall, and the polls will be open from eight o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon. The polls will be closed from twelve to one o'clock.

Voting will be similar to that in class elections, and students will vote by classes, with a different colored ballot for each class. The purpose of having the votes divided by classes is to find out how each class may differ with each other class and how one class may differ from the rest of the student body as a whole.

Leading colleges throughout the United States will conduct similar polls next week, and the Campus will publish the returns in the issue of the following week. It is hoped that a large number of students will take part in the straw ballot, and that it will cause increased interest in the more important national and international issues.

The results of the poll here will be published in the Campus next week.

Competition Planned for Student-Faculty Tennis

Because of the success of the Autumn Tennis Tournament, which will come to a close with the final match next week, it has been proposed to hold a second autumn tournament as long as the good weather lasts. In order to bring about a closer relationship among those who play tennis, and to stimulate competition, this tournament will be open to every one on the campus who plays (students, faculty, administration, extension, etc.).

Those who desire to enter are invited to send in their names through the campus mail to G. W. Small, 250 Stevens Hall, before noon Monday, October 24. Drawings will be made at that time and names will be posted on the bulletin board in the entrance of Alumni Hall.

Scanlin Temporary Head of "Freshman"

Donald Scanlin was elected temporary editor-in-chief of the Maine Freshman, weekly publication of the yearling class, at a meeting of candidates in the Campus editorial office, Tuesday. Associate and department editors and a business manager will be appointed at a later session called for Friday evening.

Candidates for the Freshman this year include: Robert A. Burns, Edith Hill, Rosemary Boardman, Mary Treinor, Roger Levenson, Arlene Merrill, Mildred Sawyer, Faith Holden, Dick Chase, Henry Little, Dick Adams, Joseph Jakkevics, Elizabeth Philbrook, George Clarke, Margaret Harriman, Margaret Sewell, Natalie Harvey, Mary Sullivan, Ruth Reed, Betty Sullivan, Marcia Allen, Beth Mulen, and Beth Gifford.

James Moreland of the English department, will be the speaker at the Student Forum of the Wesley Foundation of the Methodist Church next Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. His subject will be "Politics and the Press." Every one who has heard Mr. Moreland knows him to be a most interesting and entertaining speaker, and will want to take advantage of this privilege to hear him. The Forum meeting follows a Fellowship Hour with luncheon at 6:30 at the Wesley House. All students are cordially invited to attend. Morning Worship service will be held at the church Sunday morning at 10:30 as usual.

Neal Landers, Graduate Fellow in Agricultural Economics and Farm Management, was in Augusta October 14 and 15 gathering data in connection with the study which he is making on poultry in Maine.

Give the Team a Hand

There is something lacking at Maine this year, and that something is spirit. Cheering at football games has not been up to par. Not only did the football team not receive a rousing send-off when it left for New Hampshire last week, but from some students it actually received a razzing. Why should we not have a few pep meetings, not only before home games, but also before the teams leave for trips? Such meetings or rallies would not have to take time from classes, but could be held in the evening. At any rate they would give the members of the teams the idea that the rest of the University is backing them.

Another indication that this spirit is lacking is the state of decay to which the "Maine hello" has fallen. Since this is a worth while custom of the University and makes life on the campus more pleasant it should be carried on more fully than it now is. Possibly the trouble is that upper-classmen think freshmen should speak first, and the freshmen are afraid to speak first lest they be considered "wise-guys." According to the freshman rules, a freshman is required to speak to every one whom he believes to be a student and to tip his hat to everyone whom he thinks is a faculty member.

But when two upper-classmen meet, a freshman can't very well say "Hello" for them. So it is up to everyone to keep this custom going.

Dear Editor:

I would like to stress to the readers of the Maine Campus the distinction of Roland Hayes' engagement as the solo artist of the Festival Concert in the Bangor Auditorium next Wednesday evening, October 26. Hayes is one of the outstanding singers of today. Some authorities proclaim him the greatest living tenor. His recognition and fame are international. The Paris Monde Musical says of him, "In the midst of all the singers, German, Italian, Russian, who have been assaulting our theatres and concert halls, the Negro tenor, Roland Hayes, appears as a shining light."

It has been our desire for many years to present this artist, and a most fortunate set of circumstances brings the desire to a realization this fall. Another opportunity to hear Roland Hayes in eastern Maine will probably never present itself.

10:30 Regular Service of Worship. Sermon theme: "Life's Unconsuming Flame," an autumnal sermon by Dr. Charles M. Sharpe. Mrs. L. H. Merrill, Soprano, will be the soloist.

6:30 to 8:15, Student's and Young People's Sunday Evening Club at the Manse, 23 Bennoch St. Subject, "An Evening with the Celebrities," pictures of the living or recent great ones will be thrown on the screen (without names), and there will be a recognition contest. Also suitable comments and anecdotes concerning the various personages will be given by various individuals. Usual social good time. All invited.

A large number of freshman girls have been reporting for hockey practice at the Athletic Field on Monday and Wednesday afternoons. Prospects look bright for a strong freshman team.

The Library basement was partially remodeled during the summer vacation in order to better accommodate the reference literature of the Education department. The shelves and stored books were moved from the two rooms beneath the desk and the south reference room. In their place, the center room contains volumes from the stacks, and the south room has become an education seminar room with all the magazines and books pertinent to the courses in this department.

Professor Maurice D. Jones expects to be in Oxford County Thursday and Friday of this week. Thursday noon he will address the Norway-Paris Kiwanis Club and Thursday afternoon he will give a talk before a convention of the Oxford County Future Farmers Club. Friday he will address the Oxford County Farm Bureau.

Among the co-eds at the New Hampshire game this weekend were Jane Chase, Frances Knight, Marian Graham, Tillie Bell, Helen Findlay, Merle Schubert, Mary Scott, Midge Strout, and Bernice Wilson.

Hope Coffin and Donna Kendall spent the weekend in Portland.

Music, Music, Everywhere,
But not a song that I want to hear.

Haven't you often said that, when upon tuning in the radio all you were able to get is Grand Opera. Then is when you really appreciate recorded music.

For in the latest releases by Victor, Brunswick, and Columbia you will find music to satisfy every mood. For the latest dance numbers, with that irresistible urge which just makes you trip the light fantastic, no one better interprets them than does Guy Lombardo (his latest numbers are "Midsummer's Nite Dream," and "I Guess I'll Have to Change My Plans"); Isham Jones or Rudy Vallee. If you want something featuring close harmony, then the Boswells, Mills Brothers, and Three Keys will surely fill that want. Or if you prefer the Hot-Cha type of numbers, just hear Duke Ellington play "Swanee Shuffles," or Cab Calloway version of "Old Yazoo." And for the novelty type, be sure to hear "Pink Elephants" by George Olsen, and "Was I" by Peggy Hill. The latter is the hottest number that has come out for many a moon.

Regardless of the type of music you prefer, you will always find the music that you want when you want it at Record Headquarters, the "Blue Room" of

W. A. Mosher Co.

Neal Landers and Winthrop Libby, who has a graduate fellowship in Agricultural Economics and Farm Management, will be in Boston this week gathering information regarding poultry marketing.

On October 11, the Farm Management class visited the farm of C. C. Clements of Winterport. On October 18, they will visit the farm of C. W. Champney in Hampden.

The MAINE SNOOPUS

W HOOPS! big scandal, and once again the Suffermore Eagles come in to prominence. Who would have guessed it? The poor dears have been wearing their stars over the wrong eye. It is said that an Owl's eyes won't move unless he turns his head, but this seems to be an indication that the Eagles have got their eyes crossed....When asked what it was about Freshman Week that made her most at home, one of the freshettes answered sweetly, "The Phi Etas"....Pasky's impromptu speech at Balentine t'other night was indeed commendable. Complete text: "We'd love to have all you girls come down to A. T. O. some nite—one at a time!"....We wonder whether or not Miriam Hanaburgh smiled when she had her pitcher took Saturday....Judging by the queer noises emerging from several of the houses on the campus the reign of the paddle has returned with a vengeance....And are these Delta Tau boys worried?? They seem unable to comprehend the reason for the frigid air they are receiving from the inhabitants of the fourth floor of Balentine....And Milt MacBride pulled another famous one last week-end, but he actually did it. While looking at the high buildings in Boston what do you suppose happened? No, you're wrong, he didn't get his mouth sun-burned (maybe because the sun wasn't shining). No, he merely tripped over a fire hydrant....It's a bad state of affairs when Bill T. has to bribe the Snoop to keep out of the Snoopus. Well—O.K., Bill, you win.... Who is the apple-conscious lad who sent a package of delicious epills to one of the ex-Eagles last week?.....Three rousing cheers for the Senior Scowls. They are putting on a couple dance for a couple of half bucks per couple. Let's make it a couple cheers....And they're at it again, the knives and hatchets, scabbard and blades, or what have you. They're having sessions already trying to pick the nominees for the position of Honorary loopy kernel....Another bright one came from a darling little freshette who quoth as follows, "If his name is Robert Shaw, why do they call him Robertshaw?"....Another girl who was not aware of the convict aspect of Chioism said, "I wish they'd stop whistling The Prisoner's Song."

Beta Kappa held a Founders' Day party Saturday evening. Mrs. C. E. Sutton and Captain and Mrs. L. D. Stewart chaperoned. Jimmy McLean, Stephen Barry, and Rodney Noyes were in charge of the arrangements.

A special six-page Campus will be issued next week as a part of Homecoming Week. One page will be entirely pictures consisting of scenes of Maine and Maine activities as they were in the days gone by.

BETA KAPPA HAS PARTY FOR 31st ANNIVERSARY

Beta Kappa Fraternity held a House Party Saturday night to celebrate the thirty-first anniversary of the founding of the National Fraternity. The chapter house was decorated with colored lights and purple and gold tissue paper. Refreshments of ice cream and diamond-shaped cakes were served during intermission.

The chaperons were Captain and Mrs. Loren P. Stewart, and Mrs. C. E. Sutton. The committee in charge of arrangements were James McLean, Stephen Barry, and Rodney Noyes. Music was furnished by Louie Kyer's orchestra.

SLIPPERS ARE "STOLEN" AS COLVIN ENTERTAINS

Ten couples whirled through a gala evening at Colvin Hall last Saturday night, with Mrs. Sullivan chaperoning. One slipper was "stolen" from each lady for a few moments, and a slipper dance resulted. "Paul" also lead "Jones" around, so that became a Paul Jones specialty.

At intermission, cider and doughnuts were served, and, as one young lady remarked, "an enjoyable evening was had by all."

President and Mrs. Boardman gave a formal reception to the faculty last Wednesday evening. The house was decorated with flowers from the University greenhouse, and an orchestra furnished music. Sandwiches, coffee, cake, ice cream, candy, and nuts were served.

The annual reception to the Freshman Class was given on Thursday night. Ice cream, cake, candy, and nuts were served.

PSYCHOLOGY STAG DANCE WAS NOVEL OCCASION

The Sigma Mu Sigma Stag Dance held Friday evening was one of the most outstanding events of the weekend on the campus.

The dance was a novelty dance, and the hall was attractively decorated in colored lights. The spot light was also used.

Miss Stone of the English Department received the prize for arriving at the "Psychological Moment," and Arlene Brown received the prize for the "Psychological Spot Dance."

The chaperons were Dr. Dickinson, Mr. Brush and Miss Hatfield, all of the Psychology Department.

Chi Omega held a pledge service at the home of Louise Hill last Thursday evening when Jane Chase was pledged to the sorority. Jane has been an active member of her class being prominent in both athletic and class activities. During her freshman year she was house president at Mt. Vernon House and was on the hockey team. This year she is treasurer of the Women's Student Government Association, and has recently been elected president of the Sophomore Eagles.

The English Department entertained the senior English majors at Pushaw Lake last Saturday.

The first event was a boat race in which each major adviser entered a boat, rowed by his advisees. Dr. Ellis' boat won the race.

After dinner, the party explored an island. The last event was a baseball game between the faculty and seniors. It was an exciting game, as the final score proved. The faculty won by one run, 7-6.

Making telephone equipment presents many an interesting problem to the engineers of Western Electric—manufacturer for the Bell System.

A case in point is the drying of telephone cable before putting on the protective lead sheath. This step is of utmost importance, for the tiny copper wires cannot carry your voice properly unless their paper insulation is thoroughly dried. To this end, Western Electric engineers devised special drying ovens in which the air is thirty times drier than desert air!

The same ingenuity and thoroughness go into every step of making cable, telephones, switchboards and many other kinds of telephone equipment. The dependable apparatus that results is one reason why Bell System service is dependable.

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted"

"If a man write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mouse-trap than his neighbor, the boys build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."—RALPH WALDO EMERSON.
Does not this explain the world-wide acceptance and approval of Lucky Strike?

Bears and Wildcats Fight to 7-7 Tie in Gridiron Tussle

Blocked Kick Paves Way for N.H. Counter; Pass, Means To Wilson, Scores for Maine

For nearly three periods the Maine Black Bear outplayed the University of New Hampshire, but in the last of the third quarter, the Wildcats suddenly came to life to block Means' punt from his own five yard line, and on the next play scored a touchdown to wipe out a 7-0 Maine lead, and give the Pale Blue only an even break in the annual meeting between the two colleges at Durham, Saturday.

Maine had previously put over a touchdown in the closing minutes of the first half when Wilson took Means' thirty yard forward over his shoulder to rush untackled over the goal line for the score. The Maine quarter also kicked the extra point.

But during the latter part of the contest, New Hampshire seemed to find herself and from then on Maine was forced to a largely defensive game. Tries for field goals by both the Wildcat and Bear backs were in turn blocked late in the final period by opposing linesmen. Johnny Wilson, Maine quarter, who had displayed brilliant form in returning New Hampshire punts, was injured and removed from the game in the third quarter.

SPORTS SPIELS

By BOB BERG

The old state series is with us again that it's going to be one heck of a series and you can wager your best Sunday hat and one of the greatest yet. All four teams appear to be stronger than last year and are so evenly matched that it seems that the least break either way will turn the tide of the battle.

Maine, favored early in the year to take its second straight crown, found New Hampshire a tartar and the struggle robbed the services of three of Coach Brice's star players for the major part of the series, which considerably handicaps the team. After Bates tied Yale the Garnet practically became the favorite, but then lost to Tufts, and came back strong last week to defeat Rhode Island.

Bowdoin has a greatly improved eleven over last year's and is entering the state series for the first time since Hector was an infant canine, without a defeat chalked up against them. Colby may have dropped a ball game to an underdog Amherst eleven, but the Mules have great potential strength. Coach Roundy's team, as has been proved in the past, is right, right hard to beat in a state series.

To elect the winner is as tough as finding the proverbial needle in the well-known haystack. But here goes our predictions after considerable racking of the brain and of tossing of the coin. Maine to cop, Bates second, Bowdoin third place winner, and Colby last.

All women who are interested in debating, whether or not they have debated in high school, are asked to see Mr. Brickner at 4:15 p.m. Tuesday in 275 Stevens Hall, or leave their names in 240 Stevens, if they cannot be present on Tuesday. Those who are accepted receive two hours credit in English. Last year the debating team went on a two weeks' trip to Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and New York, debating, among other schools, Emerson College of Oratory and Columbia University.

Vote Tuesday in the straw ballot.

FROSH GRIDDERS HELD TO ANOTHER 0-0 TIE

A fast wilting Coburn defense, with their own goal line threatened, rose to the occasion to halt two long Maine drives and hold the Frosh to a scoreless tie Saturday afternoon at Alumni Field. Although the Jones gridders were on the offensive during the greater part of the game, it was only in the final quarter that they were able to advance to within striking distance of the opposite goal, and on both occasions they lost the ball on downs.

SENIOR SKULL DANCE DATED FOR NEXT WEEK

The annual Senior Skull dance this year will be held in Alumni Hall on Friday evening, October 28, at eight-thirty. It will be a couple dance with only couples allowed, except that alumni, returning for Homecoming Week, will be allowed to enter stag.

Perley Reynolds' Orchestra will provide the music for the affair, and Professor and Mrs. Benjamin C. Kent and Assistant Dean and Mrs. Maynard A. Hincks will be the chaperons. Both Professor Kent and Mr. Hincks were Senior Skulls. Swen Hallgren is chairman of the committee in charge.

Because of poor weather, only a few of the intramural touch-football games have been played thus far.

In the Southern League, Alpha Tau Omega beat Sigma Chi, Phi Gamma Delta defeated Alpha Gamma Rho, Phi Kappa beat Phi Mu Delta, and Phi Kappa Sigma won from Lambda Chi Alpha.

In the Northern League, in the only game played thus far, Theta Chi defeated the Dorm A team. Tau Epsilon Phi forfeited to Delta Tau Delta.

Miss Gene Kennedy spent the weekend in Portland.
